PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 04/04/2023.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

4	Mandatory Condition # 1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Ms. Brewster is considered to be in violation of her supervised release conditions by failing to obey all laws by committing the offense of false reporting on or about August 26, 2024.

On September 27, 2022, a United States probation officer reviewed with the defendant all conditions of supervision, to include mandatory condition number 1, as noted above. The defendant verbalized understanding, and signed a copy of her conditions.

On August 26, 2024, at approximately 11:33 p.m., Kennewick Police Department (KPD) officers, while conducting extra patrols, observed a vehicle parked on South Conway Street in Kennewick, Washington, with the driver door ajar. A male was in the drivers seat, slumped over with his head down toward his chest. This male was later identified as Zachary Ward. Mr. Ward did not move, as KPD officers approached closer to the vehicle and noticed what appeared to be a tan colored, polymer handgun sitting on Mr. Ward's lap. Mr. Ward later reported this was not a firearm but rather a lighter. It was later determined this was indeed a lighter that had a slide and pistol grip, a replica looking handgun made to be a lighter. A female, the defendant, was inside the vehicle on the front passenger seat, also passed out. The defendant initially identified herself as Christa Brewster, her sister. A records check revealed Christa Brewster had an outstanding misdemeanor warrant and the defendant was arrested on this warrant. Once she was placed in the backseat of the patrol vehicle, she admitted to lying about her name because she did not want to go to jail; she was unaware of her sister's warrant, and she was hoping the KPD officers would not identify her. She provided her real name being Sarah Brewster. The KPD officer confirmed the defendant's identity. She was booked into the Benton County Jail on the outstanding supervised release warrant, and charged with false reporting, Benton County District Court case number 4A0595265. This state matter is pending.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
